

MANAGER OF THEATRE SETS RE-OPENING DATE

---

(Special to The Statesman)

NAMPA—The New Majestic theatre, which has been completely remodeled during the past two months and is announced as one of the most beautiful in the intermountain country, will re-open August 8, Manager Herman J. Brown announced Tuesday.

Decorators, electricians and stage equipment experts are putting final touches to the interior. The new chairs are being installed and the new stage curtains have arrived and will be put in place during the week.
