

C. L. Langley, president of the West Coast Langley theatres, is making preparations for a gala opening of the new Alexander Theatre at Glendale September 4. The new house seats 2,200 persons and Langley is planning on having a regular New York or Hollywood opening as far as class is concerned when the first picture is thrown on the screen.