

Theater Jobs

Cost $300,000

Redecorating of the Egyptian Theater at 6712 Hollywood Blvd. and Loew's State Theater at 7th St. and Broadway downtown, a project costing more than $300,000, is nearing completion, and the two houses will be open to the public Friday, Pat DeCicco, manager of United Artists Theaters, announced yesterday.

On Thursday, prior to the general opening, there will be an invitational showing of MGM's "Battleground" at the Hollywood house.
