

Fox Theater

Deal Close

To $100,000

The deed recorded this week, transferring ownership of the Fox Theatre from Fox West Coast Theatres Corp. to Theatre Properties Inc., reveals the transaction to have been close to $100,000. The amount was determined from the revenue stamps affixed to the document.

The new owners also operate two theatres in Visalia, and in Newman, Menlo Park, Davis, Livermore, Pacifica, Los Altos, San Francisco and Vacaville. Taking over as new manager is Robert Craig of Visalia.

The transaction includes the entire building located at the northwest corner of Lacey Blvd. and Irwin housing the theatre, a florist shop, chiropodist, optometrist, department store and certified public accountant.
