

Group Takes Over, Renames Stage Theater

Workmen will begin remodeling and redecorating the new El Capitan Theater, formerly the Hollywood Playhouse, today. Sid Grauman, Matt Allen, Lloyd Bacon and C. E. Toberman are directing operations and promise a newly equipped theater within the next few weeks.

The group took possession over the week-end and for the next few weeks complete renovation from the marquee to backstage will be made. In addition to the transformation, Manager Allen announces that the entire staff of the old El Capitan will be with the organization at its new location.
