

Social Whirl Speeds Up for Week of Dedication

Sparkling social events will complement the ushering in of a new era this week with the opening of the Mark Taper Forum and the Ahmanson Theater at The Music Center.

The Week of Dedication, beginning today and continuing through Saturday, will be spangled with celebrations to be attended by leaders in the social, theatrical and civic worlds.

Calendar of Events

The calendar of cultural events and accompanying parties is:

Today—The world premiere of Miklos Rozsa's piano concerto by pianist Leonard Pennario, Zubin Mehta conducting the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra in the Dorothy Chandler Pavillion.

Tonight—West Coast premiere of "The Devils" opening the Mark Taper Forum. Preceding the performance, a buffet will be held in the rooms crowning the Dorothy Chandler Pavillion. Dress is black tie.

Monday—Performance of "The Devils" for Founders and Associates. Small parties to be given by individuals. Dress is optional.

Tuesday—Opening of the Metropolitan National Company at the Dorothy Chandler Pavillion with "La Traviata." Small parties to be given by individuals. Dress is optional. Third performance of "The Devils" in Mark Taper Forum for Founders and Associates. Small parties to be given by individuals.

Wednesday — Opening of Ahmanson Theater with "Man of La Mancha." Invitational party under white tent on Plaza level follows performance.

Invitational Parties

Thursday—"Man of La Mancha" in the Ahmanson Theater to be followed by invitational party under white tent on Plaza level. Fourth performance of "The Devils" for Founders and Associates. Small parties to be given by individuals.

Friday and Saturday—"Man of La Mancha" in the Ahmanson Theater to be followed by invitational parties under white tent on Plaza level.